SINCE 1905

The firm traces its origins to the practice established in Gibraltar in 1905 by the late Arthur C. Carrara CMG, KC a friend and colleague of Sergio Pelayo Triay QC (the grandfather and great grandfather of the Triay partners and family). Sergio Triay joined Arthur Carrara in practice in 1926. Arthur Carrara died in 1949 which was the same year when JJ Triay joined his father in practice. After Arthur Carrara's death, the practice was then run by S P Triay KC and his son and became known as Triay & Triay. JJ's brother J E Triay QC joined the firm in 1952 when Triay & Triay was already in full swing under his father's leadership. JE Triay QC became the senior partner of the firm in 1972.

In 1991, Triay & Triay merged with Vasquez Benady, a firm which incorporated the practice of Samuel Benady CBE, QC and Sir Alfred J Vasquez. CBE., QC, MA (Cantab). Both JE Triay QC and Sir Alfred Vasquez QC sadly passed away in 2012. Today the firm remains true to its family origins - all of JE Triay QC's sons are partners in the firm as is Sir Alfred's son Robert Vasquez QC and his nephew Freddie Vasquez QC with JE Triay QC's eldest son Melo now the firm's managing partner.
