

TRIAIY & TRIAIY

LAWYERS

OUR PRIVATE CLIENT PRACTICE TEAM

Partners

Joseph E. Triay - (Melo)

Melo was called to the Bar in 1982 and is a member of the Middle Temple. Melo heads up our private client team, advising numerous clients in relation to legal matters affecting their wealth, taxation and estate planning. Melo is an internationally recognised leader in this field. Melo is also a leading member of our Financial Services team. Melo is a former member of the Financial Services Commission and former chairman of the Bar. He has been described as “exceptional” and a “mature, calm lawyer with a lot of experience” in Chambers Global. melo.triay@triay.com

Javier Triay

Javier undertakes private client work on behalf of a wide range of clients worldwide. He has been endorsed as a “true expert”. Javier was called to the Bar in England and Wales and Gibraltar in 1984 and is a member of the Middle Temple. He has advised numerous high net worth individuals and families in relation to all aspects affecting their wealth, taxation and estate planning. He also advises in relation to the setting up of trusts and associated matters. javier.triay@triay.com

James Ramagge

James was called to the Bar in England and Wales and Gibraltar in 1994. James has experience in advising high net worth individuals in relation to trust and estate related matters. He regularly works with other intermediary advisors both locally and abroad. James is a recognised leading individual in this field and also a member of our Shipping and Admiralty team. james.ramagge@triay.com

Charles Simpson

Charles was called to the Bar in England and Wales in 1996 and subsequently in Gibraltar in 1997. He undertakes private client work albeit usually in a contentious context. Charles has considerable experience in a number of complex private wealth disputes involving Gibraltar trusts as well as matrimonial finance/ divorce matters. He is a member of ACTAPS. He is a member of the Middle Temple and also a mediator having trained with Resolution. Charles has contributed to the Gibraltar chapter in International Trust Litigation as published by Oxford University Press. charles.simpson@triay.com

28 Irish Town, Gibraltar

Telephone +350 200 72020 Facsimile +350 200 72270 Email info@triay.com Website www.triay.com