Raymond A Triay - (Monchi)

Monchi is both a practising Spanish Abogado (qualified 2006) and an English qualified Barrister having been called to the bar in 1987. He is a member of the Middle Temple. He is a recognised expert in the Shipping and Admiralty sector. Upon the acquisition by Gibraltar of Red-Ensign status in 1997, Monchi was key in the development of Gibraltar as a popular Ship Registry which has seen significant growth since. Monchi heads the Shipping and Admiralty team and was instrumental in Gibraltar being the pioneer jurisdiction for conducting Admiralty Court Sales by way of Private Treaty instead of by public auction. This has resulted in Gibraltar becoming one of the leading and most efficient Admiralty jurisdictions in the world and Monchi as its leading practitioner. Monchi has acted for all of the major shipping lenders in enforcement proceedings, be they Banks, Bond Trustees, or other credit institutions in such cases. Monchi is also a member of our Dispute Resolution team

James Ramagge

James was called to the Bar and admitted to practice in 1994. He is a partner in the firm's Shipping & Admiralty department and an internationally recognised leading lawyer in the sector. James has considerable experience in the registration and financing of vessels on the Gibraltar Commercial Ships Register. James acts for both ship owners and many international shipping banks and a number of P & I clubs. He also acts for individual private clients who wish to register vessels on the Gibraltar Pleasure Yacht Registry and has acted in negotiations of yacht building contracts as well as for international banks and leasing companies financing pleasure yachts in Gibraltar. James also acts in ship arrests alongside other members of this team. james.ramagge@triay.com

Simon P Triay - (Chico)

Chico was called to the Bar in 1990 and his shipping practice includes all aspects of the registration and financing of Gibraltar registered ships. Chico is also a member of our Dispute Resolution team. simon.triay@triay.com
