Triay & Triay is recognised internationally as a leading litigation firm. We offer a cost effective and expert service derived from the experienced pool of our lawyers coupled with the tradition, sound judgment and professional ethos of the firm, as demonstrated throughout our unrivalled history.

The team regularly handles and is actively involved in high profile international commercial litigation work with a Gibraltar flavour or connection and is able to represent client interests in the Supreme Court of Gibraltar, the Court of Appeal and the Privy Council.

The dispute resolution practice is not limited to high profile international commercial litigation work and we have an excellent reputation for effective representation of our clients' interests in all areas of litigation both locally and internationally. Lawyers in the firm therefore also appear in the Magistrates Court and other local tribunals including the Employment Tribunal and Coroner's Court.

The firm also offers and encourages the use of mediation as an alternative form of dispute resolution in appropriate cases and we have two qualified mediators within the team.

Our main areas of dispute resolution practice are:

- Admiralty
- Civil & Commercial Litigation
- Contractual Disputes
- Construction
- Criminal Litigation
- Debt Recovery
- Employment
- Family and Private Client
- Fraud & Asset Tracing
- Interim Remedies
- Insolvency
- Judicial Review
- Landlord & Tenant
- Professional Negligence
- Personal Injury
- Regulatory & Licensing
- Trademark & Intellectual Property Disputes
- Trust and Estate Disputes
